One of Australia's most respected strategists and futurists, Phil Ruthven AM (IBISWorld) examines the really BIG things driving change across our industry globally.
- 10.00am South Australia: What's Your Next BIG Thing?
How can South Australia stand out with buyers and consumers on the global stage? Professor Tom Reardon (Michigan State University) challenges us to consider where to from here for South Australia's food and beverage reputation in global markets.
- 10.20am Morning Tea
- 10.40am That BIG 'Industry 4.0' Thing
HMPS CEO Shaun Westcott explains what Industry 4.0 is actually all about and what it means for food and beverage businesses, from the little guy to the big guy, and why we should be excited!
- 11.15am Panel: BIG new things in Packaging and Processing
Shaun will facilitate a panel discussion with Visy's Andrew Kneebone, Food Processing Equipment's Tania Carey, and Openbook Howden's Sarah Leo to unwrap the latest trends and innovations in packaging and processing.
- 12.00pm Food Waste: NO More
Professor Andy Lowe (The University of Adelaide) will round up the BIG things happening in research and industry partnerships right now to turn food that's wasted into food that's wanted.
- 12.30pm Lunch
- 1.20pm What's Brewing?
On the Couch with Glenn Cooper AM, Chairman, Coopers Brewery
A rare opportunity to chat to a man who is arguably as iconic as his family's beer. What's Glenn's take on BIG things now and in the future?

The Next BIG Thing

- 2.00pm From Milk To Cream:
The story of B.-d Farm Paris Creek's BIG sale
Tim Sargent (Moore Stephens South Australia) and Ulli Spranz (B.-d Farm Paris Creek) on 'the good, the bad and the ugly' of preparing a multi-million dollar business for sale and the practicalities of succession planning.
- 2.30pm The BIG Sugar Revolution
Dr David Kannar (Nutrition Innovation) started the conversation at the 2016 Summit and is back to share his latest ground-breaking invention in Nucane, the good sugar. Nutrition Innovation is recognised as one of the most exciting global start-ups in the food and beverage industry and is expected to revolutionise a US$100 billion sugar market.
